Perhaps the most rewarding experience of every Dallas Cup is the Dallas Cup HomeStay Program, where local Dallas Cup soccer families host visiting international team players. To maximize the enjoyment of this experience by both the international players and the Dallas host families, all participating family members must fully understand the program and complete this HomeStay Agreement.

- Have to apply & be selected for Dallas Cup HomeStay program.
- The DC HomeStay Program for international teams is limited to a maximum of twenty-two (22) players. All remaining traveling party members are required to make their arrangements for room and board and are responsible for any costs involved. Hotel reservations for all adult members of the delegations (staff and supporters) one must be made at one of the designated Dallas Cup hotels as defined in the "Invitation Instructions."
- The HomeStay Program for international teams will not exceed ten (10) nights. Players may not begin their stay any earlier than Friday before the tournament week and must end their stay Monday following the conclusion of the tournament. The Dallas Cup HomeStay provides sleeping accommodation and two (2) meals per day, breakfast, and dinner, for each player. If a team wishes to arrive earlier or stay later, the team is responsible for making those arrangements and for making those arrangements and for all costs involved.
- International clubs selected for the HomeStay Program are responsible for: (a) all of their players from approximately 8:30 am to 5:00 pm daily; (b) local transportation in the form of a van, bus, or car rental sufficient to transport the entire traveling party and luggage; (c) cost of all entertainment activities selected during the tournament week; (d) setting a schedule (e) any additional meal(s) for the team.
- International Dallas Cup HomeStay teams are required to furnish (as a condition of acceptance to the tournament): (a) a Club/Team Liability/Medical/Media Release & Indemnity Agreement form, signed by an authorized team representative. The international team authorized team rep accepts all financial responsibility for the medical treatment of housed players during their stay in Texas.
- International HomeStay teams are required to provide the name of an English-speaking contact and an email address, and a 24-hour phone number for necessary communication with the host team beginning approximately six (6) weeks prior to arrival in Dallas. To arrange appropriate accommodation for the players, there should be frequent communication between the teams & families. Response to any communication within 24 hours is expected and appreciated.
